\(^1\) See comment description regarding minor course change. Minor changes are sent directly from dean’s office to Senate Council Chair. If Chair deems the change as “not minor,” the form will be sent to appropriate academic Council for normal processing and contact person is informed.
\(^2\) Courses are typically made effective for the semester following approval. No course will be made effective until all approvals are received.
\(^3\) Signature of the chair of the cross-listing department is required on the Signature Routing Log.
\(^4\) Removing a cross-listing does not drop the other course – it merely unlinks the two courses.
\(^5\) Generally, undergrad courses are developed such that one semester hr of credit represents 1 hr of classroom meeting per wk for a semester, exclusive of any lab meeting. Lab meeting generally represents at least two hrs per wk for a semester for 1 credit hour. (See SR 5.2.1.)
4. Are significant changes in content/teaching objectives of the course being proposed? YES □ NO □
   If YES, explain and offer brief rationale:

5. Course Relationship to Program(s).
   a. Are there other depts and/or pgms that could be affected by the proposed change? YES □ NO □
      If YES, identify the depts. and/or pgms:

   b. Will modifying this course result in a new requirement for ANY program? YES □ NO □
      If YES, list the program(s) here:

6. Information to be Placed on Syllabus.
   a. □ Check box if changed to 400G or 500.
      If changed to 400G- or 500-level course you must send in a syllabus and you must include the differentiation between undergraduate and graduate students by: (i) requiring additional assignments by the graduate students; and/or (ii) establishing different grading criteria in the course for graduate students. (See SR 3.1.4.)

Distance Learning Form

This form must accompany every submission of a new/change course form that requests distance learning delivery. This form may be required when changing a course already approved for DL delivery. All fields are required!

Introduction/Definition: For the purposes of the Commission on Colleges Southern Association of Colleges and Schools accreditation review, distance learning is defined as a formal educational process in which the majority of the instruction (interaction between students and instructors and among students) in a course occurs when students and instructors are not in the same place. Instruction may be synchronous or asynchronous. A distance learning (DL) course may employ correspondence study, or audio, video, or computer technologies.

A number of specific requirements are listed for DL courses. The department proposing the change in delivery method is responsible for ensuring that the requirements below are satisfied at the individual course level. It is the responsibility of the instructor to have read and understood the university-level assurances regarding an equivalent experience for students utilizing DL (available at http://www.uky.edu/USC/New/forms.htm).

Curriculum and Instruction

1. How does this course provide for timely and appropriate interaction between students and faculty and among students? Does the course syllabus conform to University Senate Syllabus Guidelines, specifically the Distance Learning Considerations?

   There are discussion boards for communication among and between the students and instructor, email, and periodic chat rooms as part of the course. This course complies with the University Senate Guidelines for Distance Learning courses.

2. How do you ensure that the experience for a DL student is comparable to that of a classroom-based student’s experience? Aspects to explore: textbooks, course goals, assessment of student learning outcomes, etc.

   The same text is used, the same materials are covered, and the same exams are given. The instructor also teaches the campus version of this course.

3. How is the integrity of student work ensured? Please speak to aspects such as password-protected course portals, proctors for exams at interactive video sites; academic offense policy; etc.

   Students are required to sign in through Blackboard. Students are given the plagiarism information covered in the Student Rights and Responsibilities book.

4. Will offering this course via DL result in at least 25% or at least 50%* (based on total credit hours required for completion) of a degree program being offered via any form of DL, as defined above? This course is part of the online Rehabilitation Counseling program.

   If yes, which percentage, and which program(s)?

   *As a general rule, if approval of a course for DL delivery results in 50% or more of a program being delivered through DL, the effective date of the course's DL delivery will be six months from the date of approval.

5. How are students taking the course via DL assured of equivalent access to student services, similar to that of a student taking the class in a traditional classroom setting?

Course Description

This course provides a comprehensive study of human growth development in the context of rehabilitation counseling. Students will review human developmental theories across the life span and their implications and applications with persons with disabilities. Issues to be addressed include physical, emotional, moral, and cognitive development and the interaction of development and disability; human sexuality and disability; spirituality and religious aspects; transition issues as they relate to family, school, employment, aging, and disability; social and learning needs of individuals across the life span, and ethical and legal issues impacting individuals and families related to adjustment and transition. Prerequisites – Admission to the Rehabilitation Counseling Program or Consent of Instructor.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, students will: 1- articulate a working knowledge of social, psychological, spiritual and learning needs of individuals at all developmental levels; 2- describe the concepts related to learning and personality development, gender and sexual identity, addictive behavior and psychopathology, and the application of these concepts in rehabilitation counseling practice; 3- assist the consumer in developing active transition strategies to successfully complete the rehabilitation process, and; 4- develop approaches that will facilitate enhancement of the individual with a disability's personal development, decision-making abilities, acceptance of responsibility, and quality of life:

Core Standards

This course addresses the following Council on Rehabilitation Education accreditation CORE standards:

- C.2 Social and cultural diversity issues
- C.3 Human growth and development
- C.4 Employment and career development
- C.7 Assessment
- C.9 Medical, functional, environmental and psychosocial aspects of disability

Required Materials - Textbooks

Additional readings available online through UK Libraries will also be announced in the weekly activities.

Course Assignments

Our accreditation association and the policy of the Graduate School require that there be different assignments and grading criteria for undergraduate and graduate students in 400 G and 500-level courses. In this course, undergraduate students will not be required to complete the term paper. The course requirements and their points toward the total grade are presented below. The requirements and the points toward the final grade that each requirement represents are as follows:

- 8 Discussion Boards Participation at 5 points each 40
- 8 Quizzes at 10 points each 80
- 1 Term Paper at 100 points 100
- 2 Exams at 80 points each 160

Total Points 380

NOTE: ALL assignments are to be submitted via Blackboard.

Summary Description of Course Assignments

* Weekly Discussion Board Participation: (40 points)

  Students are expected to participate in the course through contribution in threaded discussion, including a minimum of 3 posts on the discussion board each week. Your instructor will advise you as to what is expected for full credit. Reasons for losing points in this requirement include lack of participation or consistent participation that is not topical. The class has been broken into discussion groups. You can find out which group you belong to by entering the "Group Discussion" section to find a list of the groups and their members.

* Weekly Quizzes: (80 points)

  Following review of each week’s materials, students will complete a quiz consisting of no more than ten questions.

* Term Paper: (100 points) Check announcements for due date.
Graduate students will complete a paper on one of the course topics; the specific topic will be determined by the student and instructor in consultation. Students are required to submit and have approved a one paragraph proposal to the instructor indicating which topic they will be pursuing. Papers should be 8 - 10 pages long. The paper is waived for undergraduate students.

Paper Format:

The term papers must be typewritten, proofread, double-spaced, and are expected to show evidence of clear thought. Plan ahead so that your paper will be turned in ON TIME in quality fashion. Late papers will be subject to lowering the overall grade. Papers must follow the American Psychological Association style manual (5th edition) and include at least six references.

* Midterm Exam: (80 points) Check announcements for due date.

A Midterm Exam will be given during Week Four. The short answer, essay type exam will cover all materials from Weeks One through Four.

* Final Exam: (80 points) Check announcements for due date.

A Final Exam will be given during Week Eight. The short answer, essay type exam will be cumulative, covering all materials from Weeks One through Eight.

Grades

Your final grade will be determined on the basis of the weights for each assignment multiplied by your grade for that assignment. This will then be translated into a letter grade as follows. Late assignments (including discussion board participation), will not be accepted without permission from the instructor. These are the minimums required to achieve each grade:

Grading Scale for Graduate Students

90 – 100% = A (High Achievement)
80 – 89% = B (Satisfactory Achievement)
70 – 79% = C (Minimum passing grade)
Below 70% = E

Grading Scale for Undergraduate Students

90 – 100% = A (High Achievement)
80 – 89% = B (Satisfactory Achievement)
70 – 79% = C (Minimum passing grade)
60 – 69% = D

Undergraduate students will not be required to complete the term paper.

Final Exam Information

The final exam will be available beginning Wednesday at 12:01am est through Tuesday at 4:30pm est of Week 8.

Mid-term Grade for undergraduates

Mid-term grades will be posted in myUK by the deadline established in the Academic Calendar (http://www.uky.edu/Registrar/AcademicCalendar.htm)

Course Policies:

Submission of Assignments:

All assignments are to be submitted through Blackboard. In order to achieve and maintain sufficient progress in this web-based course it is necessary to complete and submit assignments/class activities by the due date indicated. A due date is provided on the course schedule with regard to each individual assignment. The submission window will close for each respective assignment after the due date indicated. Failure to submit an assignment by the due date could result in a failing grade for the assignment unless prior arrangements are made with the course instructor.

Additional readings may be assigned and will be made available to you. Completion of all course assignments/activities, including discussion board participation is mandatory. Acceptable reasons for excused absences/late assignments are listed in Student Rights and Responsibilities (5.2.4.2). Acceptance of late assignments is at the discretion of the course instructor. According to university guidelines, students are allowed an excused absence for specified reasons. The burden of proof is on the student; sufficient documentation may be required.

Attendance Policy:

Students are expected to review all course materials in the week the materials are available (see course outline below). Students are also expected to complete weekly quizzes during the three day window of availability each week. There are situations when absences are excused and extensions are granted. See below for policy on excused absences.
Excused Absences

Students need to notify the professor of absences prior to class when possible. S.R. 5.2.4.2 defines the following as acceptable reasons for excused absences: (a) serious illness, (b) illness or death of family member, (c) University-related trips, (d) major religious holidays, and (e) other circumstances found to fit “reasonable cause for nonattendance” by the professor.

Students anticipating an absence for a major religious holiday are responsible for notifying the instructor in writing of anticipated absences due to their observance of such holidays no later than the last day in the semester to add a class. Information regarding dates of major religious holidays may be obtained through the religious liaison, Mr. Jake Karnes (859-257-2754).

Students are expected to withdraw from the class if more than 20% of the classes scheduled for the semester are missed (excused or unexcused) per university policy.

Verification of Absences

Students may be asked to verify their absences in order for them to be considered excused. Senate Rule 5.2.4.2 states that faculty have the right to request “appropriate verification” when students claim an excused absence because of illness or death in the family. Appropriate notification of absences due to university-related trips is required prior to the absence.

Academic Integrity

Per university policy, students shall not plagiarize, cheat, or falsify or misuse academic records. Students are expected to adhere to University policy on cheating and plagiarism in all courses. The minimum penalty for a first offense is a zero on the assignment on which the offense occurred. If the offense is considered severe or the student has other academic offenses on their record, more serious penalties, up to suspension from the university may be imposed.

Plagiarism and cheating are serious breaches of academic conduct. Each student is advised to become familiar with the various forms of academic dishonesty as explained in the Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities. Complete information can be found at the following website: http://www.uky.edu/Ombud. A plea of ignorance is not acceptable as a defense against the charge of academic dishonesty. It is important that you review this information as all ideas borrowed from others need to be properly credited.

Part II of Student Rights and Responsibilities (available online http://www.uky.edu/StudentAffairs/Code/part2.html) states that all academic work, written or otherwise, submitted by students to their instructors or other academic supervisors, is expected to be the result of their own thought, research, or self-expression. In cases where students feel unsure about the question of plagiarism involving their own work, they are obliged to consult their instructors on the matter before submission.

When students submit work purporting to be their own, but which in any way borrows ideas, organization, wording or anything else from another source without appropriate acknowledgement of the fact, the students are guilty of plagiarism. Plagiarism includes reproducing someone else’s work, whether it be a published article, chapter of a book, a paper from a friend or some file, or something similar to this. Plagiarism also includes the practice of employing or allowing another person to alter or revise the work which a student submits as his/her own, whoever that other person may be.

Students may discuss assignments among themselves or with an instructor or tutor, but when the actual work is done, it must be done by the student, and the student alone. When a student’s assignment involves research in outside sources of information, the student must carefully acknowledge exactly what, where and how he/she employed them. If the words of someone else are used, the student must put quotation marks around the passage in question and add an appropriate indication of its origin. Making simple changes while leaving the organization, content and phraseology intact is plagiaristic. However, nothing in these Rules shall apply to those ideas which are so generally and freely circulated as to be a part of the public domain (Section 6.3.1).

Please note: Any assignment you turn in may be submitted to an electronic database to check for plagiarism.

Accommodations due to disability

If you have a documented disability that requires academic accommodations, please see me as soon as possible during scheduled office hours. In order to receive accommodations in this course, you must provide me with a Letter of Accommodation from the Disability Resource Center (Room 2, Alumni Gym, 257-2754, email address: jkarnes@email.uky.edu) for coordination of campus disability services available to students with disabilities

On-line classroom behavior, decorum, and civility

The university, and the course instructor and facilitator(s), maintain a commitment to respect the dignity of all students/guests, and to value responsible differences among members of the academic community. Discussion and debate are integral components of academic discovery, and every individual retains the rights to disagree respectfully in the course of that discovery. Students/guests have the right to take reasoned and respectful exception to opinions voiced by the course instructor or facilitator(s), other students, or guests. The expected level of civility in this course will not tolerate attacks of a personal nature or statements denigrating another on the basis of race, sex, religion, sexual orientation, age, national/regional origin or other such personal factors.

Additional Detail Regarding Office Hours

In addition to availability for video conferencing, the instructors are available to speak with you, via email or telephone, concerning class matters throughout the semester. If you send an email, you can expect a response within a maximum of 48 hours, though most responses occur even quicker.

Tentative Course Schedule
